Misses Anastasia McNamara, Edna Herndon, Matilda and Louise Day, Mabel and Heien Epps have returned to the city, after a short stay at Mrs. Lowe's Cottage, Ocean View.

It is easier to keep some children in health in winter than in summer. And yet it is very important that the child should be strong and well during the hot weather. In the first place, a very little ill is liable to develop into a large one in summer because of the germs in milk, water and many because of the germs in milk, water and many hot to allow your children to become irregular in their stools during the heated term. The Pepsin, the guaranteed laxative-tonic. It is exactly suited to the needs of children because it is gentle and mild in action, absolutely pure and free from narco of mothers keep it constantly in the house against emergencies, and as a bottle no family should be without it. Washington Social News

Washington N. C. July 8—One of the most charming social events of Washington's social circles was a delightful garden and porch party given by Mra. Samuel R. Fowle and daughter, Miss Ethel, on Thursday evening, complimentary to their guests, Misses Eunice Borden, of Goldshoro: Elizabeth Baker, of Tarbore, Mary and Bersie Hollister, of New Bern; Velms Morrow, of Albemarle, and Winnifred Beckwith, of Plymouth, Pa., and Mr. Orr, of Statesylle whom they are entertaining at a house party.
